Day Four -- Thursday, March 21st

This day is a different sort of day, in which we use our time together to gather in small groups to dig into a wide range of topics. There will be options for whole- or half-day workshops. A few are by-invitation-only, many are open. We will have more details on the offerings on our event website in the coming days.

Lunch will be served for all from 12:00-1:00 in the Rehnquist Courtyard.
